TREW GUN IN HIS FACE.
R. H. Rhodes who lives near Mount Pleasant church in Nash County claims that last night about ten o'- clock a negro in a stable under Smith's warehouse threw a gun in his face, and his hand in his collar, and running his hand in Rhodes pocket took therefrom his pocketbook containing $107.00 and a pocket knife.
Rhodes says that the negro wore a black cap and was of ordinary size.
He was taken by surprise and gave
